

Trimco (Bangladesh) Company Limited

Policy No. 2

Attendance Policy (SOP)

Effective Date: 1 January 2023

Note: Policy can be amended as and when required

2.1 Policy Statement:

Trimco (BD) Co Ltd. believes that a supportive, safe and inclusive working environment can encourage all employees to perform in a synchronized culture to attain organization objective together. For establishing this, a good attendance management at work is very necessary. The aim of the Attendance Policy is to provide the necessary support and guideline to employees so that employees are treated in a consistent and fair manner to enable them to perform with a good attendance culture at the workplace.

2.2 Scope of application:

This attendance policy will provide necessary guidelines to govern the regular attendance and related issues like office timing, absenteeism, tardiness, short-leave, gate pass, external visit during office hour, early leave, late arrival, card punch missing etc.

2.3 Applicable to

All employee of Trimco (BD) Co Ltd. is obliged by the employment agreement to obey and practice this policy and the relevant guidelines, office notice and procedures, as or when introduced by due authority. However, management reserves the right to update, revise the policy as & when required.

2.4 Implementation authority:

Under the authority and approval of management, the Head of HR, Admin & Compliance will be responsible for communication, implementation & revision of the policy at all level of the organization. As or when revised, all employee is obliged to abide by the rules and regulations.

2.5 Office working hour and attendance recording:

All employee of Trimco (BD) Co Ltd. must report to respective workstation before the stipulated time. The attendance will be recorded at actual timing of the reporting to workstation and leaving the workstation. The attendance will be recorded by access control devices or manual registers, as applicable.

This is the sole responsibility of the employee to ensure proper and accurate recording of the attendance. They must punch properly to ensure the record. If confusion arises, they are advised to check with HR Department for the accuracy of the attendance record.

However, for unavoidable circumstances, there will be 10 minutes consideration period for Dhaka Corporate Office & 5 Minutes for the Factory. Any reporting after 10 & 5 minutes of the reporting time will be considered as Late Attendance no matter what, Traffic, Rain, Strikes etc. which is not a responsibility of company to accept late reporting (If there are very exceptional sudden situations of natural calamities, pandemic situation affected reasons etc. Company will consider and declare ad-hoc decisions) and relevant corrective or disciplinary procedures will be initiated, case to case basis. Repeated or regular late coming after reporting will be considered as violation of attendance guidelines, resulting in correcting or disciplinary action, as or when required.

General office timings are furnished below for ready reference. However, special office timing may be imposed due to situation requirement, which will be well-communicated before implementation by HR Department.

Trimco (Bangladesh) Company Limited

OFFICE

Timing Shift-1 (8:30am to 5:30pm)

Shift-2 (9:00am to 6:00pm)

Lunch & prayer break: 1.00 pm to 2.00pm

Weekly Holiday: Friday and Two Saturday in a month

FACTORY

Timing 8:00am to 5:00pm

Lunch & prayer break: 1.00 pm to 2.00pm

Weekly Holiday: Friday

2.6 Employee's Responsibility

Time of arrival and departure is to be recorded by the Electronic Access Control System. It is the responsibility of every employee to ensure that the Electronic Access Control Machine read his/her Fingerprint at the time of arrival and departure. All staff members are required to attend office at actual time of start of office. If any staff member observes that the machine or ID CARD or Fingerprint does not function properly, the same should be informed to HR and Administration Department on the spot/immediately.

2.7 Tardiness

Repeated and frequent late reporting will be considered as Tardiness and will result in disciplinary action taken against the employee like salary deduction, verbal warning, written warning, withheld promotion or increment, degradation and termination of employment, as applicable from case to case as per management discretion. This will also be reflected in his/her PAR (performance appraisal report) and concerned staff's increment and promotion may be blocked/held up for the next year. All deduction will be made on monthly basis unless due authority decides to make it in any other period-frequency.

However, HR will start accumulating Late hours and for every 4 hours accumulated, 0.5 days EL will be deducted. No pay if EL balance is not available. Who does not complete one year of service, this will be adjusted against basic salary.

2.8 Absenteeism

If any employee does not report to workstation without any information or communication to due authorized it will be considered as absenteeism, which is a violation of attendance policy and resulting in disciplinary action taken against the employee. If a staff is unable to come for any special reason, he/she should immediately inform about his/her unexpected absence to his/her Reporting Manager/HOD along with HR Department & take the permission. This should be done, either by telephone/email/HRM app/What's app etc., explaining why he/she is absent and when he/she hopes to return.

If, no communication is recorded with respect to absenteeism then that leave will be considered as EL or Leave Without Pay (if EL not available), even Reporting Manager/HOD is approved the leave. All deduction will be made on monthly basis unless due authority decides to make it in any other period-frequency. And this would be reflected in his/her Performance Appraisal Report.

2.9 Missing attendance records and attendance slip

If the employee fails to record his attendance while reporting to workstation, the employee must fill-up the Attendance Slip, then get it approved by Line Manager/Head of Department, then submit it to HR Department no later than two working days within the reporting time.

Trimco (Bangladesh) Company Limited

Attendance slip will be available with Line Managers/Department Head, provided from HR Department, in hard copy or in email. Attendance slip may be communicated in hard copy or in email, whichever is convenient for the employee. For those who has direct emailing access, may use email communication, keeping concern Department in loop.

Under any circumstances, it is solely employees' responsibility to ensure that duly approved attendance slip reaches to respective authority of HR Department within due time. Failing which will result in the following general corrective or disciplinary action.

However, management reserves the right to alter the level of disciplinary actions in special cases.

2.10 Short & Half Day Leave

Short Leave

Short leave (max twice in a month) can be used if any employee needs to report late or leave early than the office hour / during the office hour for the reason of personal, official, medical or emergency for less than three hours of time. Short leave may also impose to employee for his tardiness or absenteeism, and as a result of corrective or disciplinary procedures, with or without pay, as applicable.

Short leave is only applicable for less than 3 hours duration of late reporting or early leaving. If the duration is 3 hours it will fall under half-day leave category.

Half-Day Leave

Half-day leave can be used if any employee needs to report late or leave early than the office hour for the reason of personal, medical or emergency for three hours and less than 5 hours duration. Half-day leave may also impose to employee for his tardiness or absenteeism, and as a result of corrective or disciplinary procedures, with or without pay, as applicable.

Half-day leave is only applicable for 3 - 5 hours duration of late reporting or early leaving. If the duration is more than 5 hours it will fall under full-day leave category.

Fill-up application, get approval and place it to HR Department before leaving the office. For those who has direct emailing/HRM app access, may use email communication, keeping Line Manager, Head of Department/Line Manager, HR in loop for availing approval for such short leave.

No employee should avail short & half day leave without due approval, failing which will result in disciplinary actions.

2.11 Movement Pass & Recording in Movement Register (In/Out Register)

FOR FACTORY-

Movement pass and entry (in/out) is a must for the employees (including senior level) who needs to go out of the office before official time- out, be it official or personal. Movement pass can be collected from HR Department or Head of Department upon submitting duly filled up and obtained approval from competent authority. For subordinates, the movement pass must be approved by Line Manager/Department Head by clearly mentioning the duration of staying outside, visit venue and purpose of the visit. For Line Manager/Department Head positions, a verbal approval will service the purpose, unless it is specified to provide in written by the Head of the unit.

Before leaving the office, movement record must be written in In/Out register by the individual.

Trimco (Bangladesh) Company Limited

All Departmental Heads/Reporting Managers should monitor their team members whether they are complying the procedure.

If attendance device is not functioning due to technical error or any other reason, you should mark/write your in/out time on the same register with your signature.

FOR OFFICE-

Movement entry (In/Out) is must in "IN/OUT REGISTER" for the employees (including senior level & sales staffs), who needs to go out of the office before official time- out, be it official or personal. All staffs/support staffs should inform to their Reporting Manager/HOD or HR (in absence of Reporting Manager) and take clearance before leaving. For Line Manager/Department Head positions, the same should be notified to Head of Office/GM(Operations).

All Departmental Heads/Reporting Managers should monitor their team members whether they are complying the procedure.

If attendance device is not functioning due to technical error or any other reason, you should mark/write your in/out time on the same register with your signature.

2.13 Conclusion

The attendance policy focuses on maintaining high standards of work attendance by establishing clear system with guidance and procedures for ensuring absence is managed fairly and consistently across the organization under similar standards.

The objective of the Attendance policy is to create a good organizational attendance culture that can deliver high quality job performance and make the organization a great place to be part of, which nourishes the values – Teamwork, Compassion, Excellence, Accountability, Respect and Integrity.